ANNOUNCEMENT

In accordance with the Tseshaht First Nation Custom Election Code Section 12 (a) and (g), as of November 1st, 2021 Bella Fred has been appointed the Social Development & Health Manager in the Tseshaht First Nation Administration. Therefore, a vacancy on Council has occurred and Bella has provided her resignation letter as an Elected member of Council, effective October 31st, 2021.

Section 11 of the Custom Election code now requires “a by-election held in accordance with the provisions of this Code for the vacant position”. Tseshaht administration is in the request for proposal process with electoral officers and will be appointed by the Tseshaht Council per Section 16 of the Custom Election Code.

We thank Bella for her time on Council and wish her well in her new role as Social Development & Health Manager. She previously held this role and we know she will do an excellent job.
