BEACH KEEPER & VISITOR SERVICES ATTENDANT (SEASONAL)

Employment opportunity for Tseshah members

The Tseshah First Nation Administration Office is now accepting applications from Tseshah members for a Beach Keeper & Visitor Services Attendant. This is a part-time casual seasonal position.

POSITION SUMMARY

The TFN Administration Office has one (1) part-time casual seasonal position opening for a Beach Keeper & Visitor Services Attendant to work with our Beach Keeper Program Team in the Broken Group Islands.

Beach Keeper & Visitor Services Attendant work responsibilities require contributing to the team approach for the undertaking of wide variety of seasonal visitor services and beach maintenance work. Job duties include daily patrolling, cleaning of facilities, maintaining camping areas, checking visitor permits, collecting fees and monitoring wildlife.

Working under the operational supervision of the Program's Team Leader, you will provide onsite support to ensuring that visitor attendance at the Broken Group Island's beaches and marine environments is monitored and any safety issues are addressed in accordance with prescribed procedures.

As a seasonal employee of the Beach Keeper Program, your up to 40-hour weekly work schedule will involve a rotating work roster with extended work hours and scheduled weekend work days. The seasonal work term of this program requires you to commit to a work term commencing in April and ending in October. If selected as the successful applicant may have first right of recall to this part-time seasonal employment position.
